

Drought on the Oregon Coast – 2025

- Lincoln County requested a drought declaration from the Governor on July 2, 2025.
- An emergency drought declaration was granted by the Governor on July 10, 2025.
- Since 1990, Lincoln County has been under a Governor's drought declaration on five occasions – 1992, 2018, 2021, 2023, & 2025.
- This year, several streams hit historic low streamflows; see hydrographs for the Siletz, Alsea, and Yachats Rivers. Streams were regulated to protect the existing instream water rights, also shown on the hydrographs.
